

Frédéric Diverrez is appointed Head of the BtoB and specialised services Division of the Arkéa group

Brest, 27 August 2020 - Frédéric Diverrez, 49, takes over the management of the division in charge of BtoB activities and specialised services at Arkéa, and joins the Executive Committee of the cooperative and territorial banking group. Since 2017, he was Chairman of the Executive Board of Monext, the group's subsidiary specialising in electronic payments. Frédéric Diverrez succeeds Tarak Achich, who has chosen to leave the group to devote himself to a new project.

Frédéric Diverrez, 49, is in charge of the subsidiaries developing white label banking services (Arkéa Banking Services, Mangopay, Monext, Nextalk, ProCapital) as well as the group's specialised subsidiaries (CFCAL, Financo, Leetchi, Pumpkin). The BtoB and Specialised Services division has more than 1,500 employees.

A graduate of the ESSI computer engineering school, Frédéric Diverrez began his career in 1997 at Sopra Steria. He held various positions during his 13-year career with the Group.

He joined the Arkéa group in 2009 as Chief Executive Officer and then Chairman of the Executive Board of ProCapital, a subsidiary providing securities services to financial institutions and management companies. In 2012, he became CEO of Monext and Chairman of its Management Board in 2017.

Hélène Bernicot, CEO of the Arkéa group states: "I would like to thank Tarak Achich for his commitment and contribution to the development of the Arkéa group since 2012. I wish him every success in his new projects. I welcome Frédéric Diverrez to the group's Executive Committee. His very good knowledge of Arkéa and his solid experience are valuable assets in the pursuit of the actions undertaken for several years in support of the strategy to diversify our revenue sources. »
